

MAT & Sister Tree present

The Good Person of Trenchtown

by Bertolt Brecht

New version by Michael McMillan

WORLD PREMIERE

COMMUNITY ACTORS WANTED

In Autumn 2010, MAT & Sister Tree are staging a new production of Brecht's classic comedy, The Good Person of Sezuana. The original play is set in China - but our version moves the action to Trenchtown in Jamaica in the 1980s - a time of political violence and gang warfare ... Bob Marley music ... flared trousers and platform shoes... The play is written in Jamaican patois, and features songs and music.

This will be a community production, mixing professional and non-professional actors.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR ACTORS OF ALL AGES, TO PLAY A VARIETY OF ROLES IN THE PRODUCTION.

Rehearsals will be held in Birmingham, mostly in the evenings and at weekends, from July - September. The play will tour to venues in the Midlands, from 4th - 23rd October. There will be fourteen performances in all. Venues include the Arena, Wolverhampton; the Theatre Severn, Shrewsbury; artrix Bromsgrove; the Drum, Birmingham; as well as community venues. (Cast members will be paid expenses and travel for rehearsals & tour.)
